

It Should Have Been Me (blues shuffle in E)

As I passed by, a fine hotel
Saw a sweet young thing, lord she sure was lookin' swell
I gave her the eye, started to carryin' on
When a Cadillac pulled up and lord she was gone

Chorus

It should have been me, with that real fine chick
It should have been me, with that real fine chick
It should have been me, ridin' in that Cadillac

Five minutes later, a little time passed
I saw another girl, oh, she had a lot of class
I was about to ask her, out on a date
When her husband pulled up wavin' a big 38

Chorus

solo

Down on the corner, a real sharp cat
$300 suit, $100 hat
Standing on the curb right by a dynaflo
A voice from inside saying "come on daddy let's go"

Chorus

Solo 2

I ate a bowl of chili, felt just fine
When I passed by Café 225
There was Mike Milanesi eatin' a t-bone steak
A fine lookin' waitress servin' him ice cream and cake

Chorus
